

THE REPRESENTATIVES OF UNION OF BANKS OF ARMENIA VISITED THE CHAMBER OF ADVOCATES OF RA

22.12.2015 17:52

On 22 December, a meeting was held in the Chamber of Advocates of RA with the representatives of Union of banks of Armenia in the face of the president Samvel Chzmachyan and deputy president Seyran Sargayan.

The parties discussed the main issues of sustaining the arbitration institute and making a culture of using it. The participants in the meeting raised the issues which can emerge during the development of the institute.

Attention is also paid to the international experience. It is recorded, that in many European countries where is actual the institute, the 30 percent of the arguments are solved by arbitration.

In the end of the meeting the representatives of Union of banks of Armenia walk around the building of the Chamber. They were introduced to the School of Advocates of RA, The Office of Public Defender.

Advocate Hayk Hovhannisyan and the director of the School of Advocates of RA Simon Babayan participated in that meeting.

```
BACK $(window).load(function(){ if(typeof $(".fb_comments_count").html() != "undefined" && parseInt($(".fb_comments_count").html()) != 0){ updateCommentsCount(window.location.href); } })
```