

STUDENTS OF THE SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LAWYERS VISITED THE CHAMBER OF ADVOCATES IRAVABAN.NET

20.02.2016 14:23

Today, the students of the School on Practical Skills for Young Lawyers organized by the “LEGAL ALLIANCE” Law Firm, met with Mr. Ara Zohrabyan, the President of the Chamber of Advocates of the RA. Prior to meeting with the President of AC, the students met with Ms Melanyan Arustamyan, Head of the Public Defender’s Office. The latter organized a study tour in the office of Public Defender, presented the organizational structure of the Office, as well as the procedure for involving the public defender; providing support to the citizens and answered the questions of the students. Ms Arustamyan said that the Armenian PDO model functions better and more efficiently than the former model, which sometimes caused a number of violations and bizarre incidents. For example, the reference about the working hours of the public defender was issued by the investigators. There were cases where it turned out that the defender had worked for 48 hours per day. Then the students made a study tour in the School of Advocates. Mr. Roman Aharonyan, the Deputy Director of the School, spoke about the procedure of acceptance to the school and graduate, receiving the degree of advocate. He also answered to the questions about forms of tuition and the correspondence courses. Mr. Ara Zohrabyan, the President of the Chamber of Advocates, presented to the young lawyers and law students interesting examples of the hard as well as pleasant work of the advocate. He also spoke about the difficult path which the advocates’ community had passed, the structure of the Chamber of Advocates and its objectives. In response to the question of one of the students about the attitude towards the advocates who earn in a dishonest way, Mr. Zohrabyan told that they have passed a really complicated and difficult path in this direction and currently the work in this direction is still underway.

Read more in Iravaban.net